INDEPENDENT HORROR FILM PRODUCTION CALL FOR AUDITIONS CAST AND PRODUCTION CREW

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. — I AM HORROR, an independent horror production company, will be holding a casting and crew call for their 2nd independent, feature length horror film, House on Ghost Hill Road, on Saturday, April 27 2013, from 11:00am to 5:00pm. The call is for actors (M & F) of from 21 to 50 years of age and of any ethnic origins as well as enthusiastic crew members. Experience is not necessary but preferred, please bring or email head shots and/or portfolios if you have either. To be part of this production, the only real requirement is that you have a positive attitude, be available weekends in July and August and be a horror fan that has a passion to make independent horror films locally. The cast and crew call will be held at the I AM HORROR production studio, located in the Jungle Science Art Laboratories at 33 Court St., Binghamton NY.

House on Ghost Hill Road is the tale of Jason Fury and his team of Paranormal Investigators as they go to the legendary House on Ghost Hill Road in search of paranormal adventures and end up finding answers to Jason's own tragic past. There they will find a evil more horrific than they could have ever imagined..

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

This original horror film was once again written and will be produced by independent filmmaker, Doug Bush. House on Ghost Hill Road will reunite much of the creative team that was behind their first award winning film Demon Messenger. House on Ghost Hill Road will feature the return of Co-Producer and Director Theodore Nappi who is a member of the Communications Department at Broome Community College. KBFX make-up artist, and Co-Producer Kendra Baker will also return, this time to take the lead in the creation of several original creatures as well as many other special effects.

To schedule an interview, or for additional information on House on Ghost Hill Road, Demon Messenger or the I AM HORROR production company in general, visit IAMHORROR.COM or call (607) 727-3044.
